

Library Log In Instructions: Logging in with OpenAthens - Students

To access online library resources, you may be prompted to log in with OpenAthens.

- Tusculum Students
Sign in using your Tusculum University account
- Tusculum Faculty/Staff

At the bottom of the white box, there is a small text link: "By using this site you agree to us setting cookies. Please see our privacy and cookie information."

Choose the correct option and log in using your TU log in information (the credentials you use for Moodle, WebAdvisor, etc...)

The screenshot shows the OpenAthens sign-in form. It has the heading "Sign in to continue." and two input fields:

- Username: A text box with a person icon and the placeholder text "Email address or username".
- Password: A text box with a lock icon and the placeholder text "Password".

Below the input fields is an orange "Sign in" button and a blue link that says "Problems signing in?".
